The beauty of Swanage Bay, the surrounding Purbeck Hills and Jurassic Coastline is very evident from the land, but a whole realm of shipwrecks and military history lies on the seabed. Established in 1958 Swanage Diving School is the oldest diving school in Great Britain with the current owners having owned Divers Down along with dive boat charter for the last 27 years and the dive shop and kit hire for the last 17 years. With all water sports and activities becoming ever more popular these premises are ideally situated for inshore and offshore activities.

The Floor Area of the internal premises is approximately 2400 sq. ft. comprising of main shop with kitchen area. A second unit containing three William & Jones compressors and oxygen converter for filling Air and Nitrox dive tanks. The third unit provides the training school, office and extra storage. There are 3 allocated parking spaces on the pier approach, external terrace and walkway to floating pontoon.

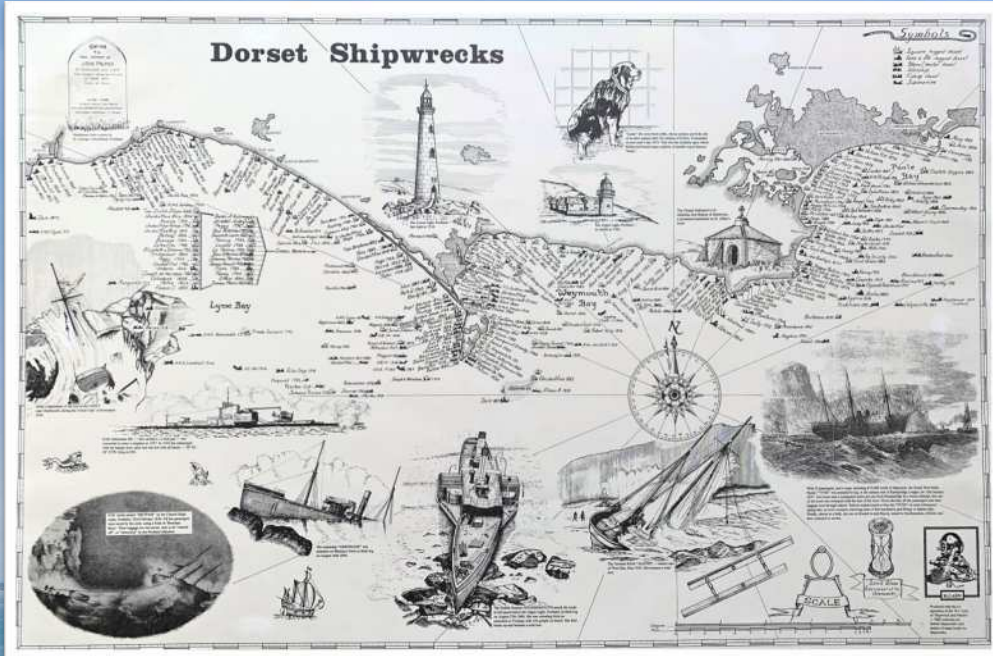

The versatility of this site is exciting and energising, the business opportunity is immense and the views over the pier, bay and sea are breath taking.

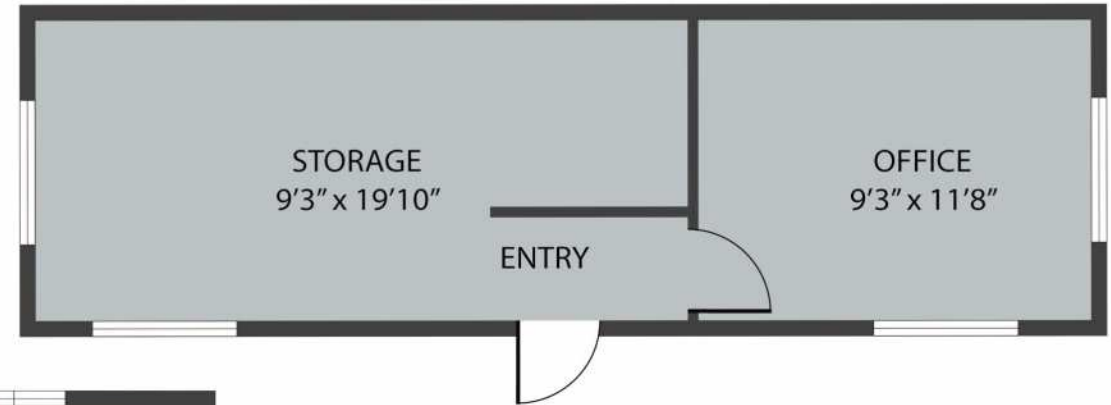

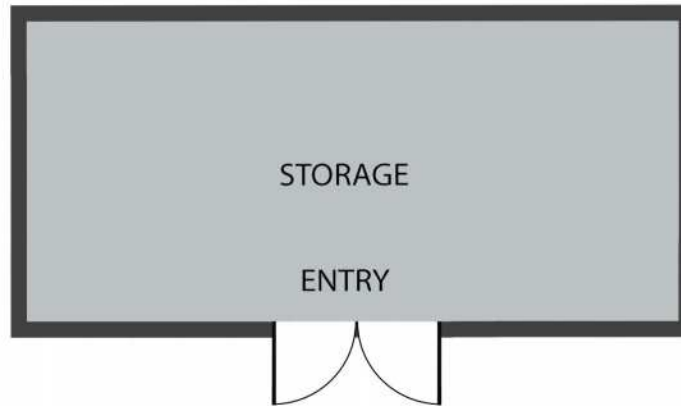

Not all equipment and artefacts are included in the sale price, the stock will be the cost at point of sale and larger items of machinery, pontoon and boat may be available to purchase by separate negotiation.
